SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. Vu Dinh Tung, Minister of War Invalids of the Democratic Republic of Vietnam (DRV), arrived in P'inghsiang (106-44, 22-06) on 2 September 1951 with a mission of 16 persons to visit sick and wounded DRV officers recuperating in Kwangsi. The group proceeded to the sanatorium of DRV officers at Talién, near P'inghsiang, where over 80 officers of high and medium rank were hospitalized. Tung delivered a letter from Ho Chi Minh and gifts to the officers and reported to them on military conditions in Vietnam.
2. The group left P'inghsiang for Lungchow on 3 September to visit DRV troops in two sanatoriums there before returning to Vietnam.
